Welcome and General Session

9:00-10:00 AM

General Assembly Briefing, 1.0 HR (Sarah Jessee)

This will be a dynamic conversation on recently passed legislation, expectations for upcoming General Assembly sessions, and key policy developments affecting the legal landscape. This briefing will explore how emerging legislative issues may impact Virginia's defense bar, providing timely insights, practical considerations, and opportunities for informed discussion and professional engagement.

The New Rule 3:8: Eliminating the Slow Drip of Serial Pleadings-Stage Motions, 1.0 HR (Sophie Campos & Ben Woody)

Did you miss the recent amendment to Rule 3:8? Our panelists will examine the history of the rule and what precipitated the change in the context of “serial pleading.” They will explore the practical implications of the change, including drilling down on what makes something “plea-able” for a plea-in-bar, when is something a demurrer, and what happens when there is lag time between a court’s ruling and the submission of an order disposing of a case.

Frequent Flyers: Handling Recurring Expert Witnesses and Objections to IMEs, 1.0 HR (Jacob Pierce & Ben Woody)

IMEs are a critical piece of evaluating damages. So, through the example of a neuropsychological examination, our panelists will discuss best practices in pursuing IMEs. The panel will discuss prevalent strategies advanced by the plaintiff’s bar in negotiating IMEs, imposing conditions, and so forth. Specifically in the context of neuropsychology, the panel will discuss why requests to record is tantamount to denying the examination, and best practices in formulating protective orders concerning test data.

LITIGATION SECTION BREAKOUTS (2.0 HRS)

APPELLATE ADVOCACY and CORPORATE & COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

2:30-3:30 PM

Beating the Standard of Review, 1.0 HR

On appeal, standards of review are just like standard of proof at trial – they determine how high the hurdle is for a litigant to clear and win. Unlike a standard of proof, however, appellate standards of review are more flexible and offer litigants an opportunity to strategically frame an issue to increase the likelihood of an affirmance or reversal. This CLE explains and analyzes the various standards of review and discusses strategies for navigating those standards on appeal.

3:30-4:30 PM

Preserving Issues for Appeal at Trial, 1.0

This presentation will provide Virginia attorneys with practical guidance on preserving issues for appellate review. The program will address common pitfalls that can result in waiver, including making timely objections, stating the specific grounds for objections, proffers, motions to strike, jury instructions, evidentiary issues, and post-trial motions. Attendees will learn practical strategies for creating a clear record, protecting their clients' positions, and ensuring that potentially reversible errors remain available for appeal.

AUTOMOBILE & TRANSPORTATION LIABILITY and LOCAL GOVERNMENT

2:30-4:30 PM

Defending the Government and Government Employee in the Inevitable Car Accident Case: All Issues Potpourri, 2.0 HRS

With Jeopardy!-inspired trivia (and prizes!) sprinkled in, presenters will provide an overview of defending the municipality or county and its employee in the inevitable car accident case. The session will cover sovereign immunity issues and corresponding uninsured motorist implications, accident reconstruction and medical experts strategies, and general best practices for successful defense in such cases.

2:30-3:30 PM

Jury Instruction Strategy, 1.0 HR

Jury instructions are often an afterthought at trial, but they present a powerful appellate issue in medical malpractice cases. This presentation will cover recent appellate decisions, requesting and preserving instructions, avoiding reversible error, and using instructions strategically in closing argument and settlement negotiations.

Kristina Fattoum, Mitchell, Simopoulos & Fattoum

3:30-4:30 pm

Combating Plaintiff's Spoliation Playbook and Avoiding the Adverse Inference Instruction, 1.0 HR

When critical evidence goes missing in medical malpractice litigation, the stakes are enormous. This session equips defense counsel with practical tools to recognize and counter plaintiff's spoliation tactics, challenge adverse inference motions, implement effective litigation hold protocols, and mitigate jury instruction damage when spoliation arguments survive to trial.

POLICY COVERAGE

2:30-3:30 PM

The 5 W's of EUOs: Breaking Down Examinations Under Oath, 1.0 HR

This session will provide a thorough overview of the Examination Under Oath condition of an insurance policy. We will answer the who, what, when, where, and why of EUOs as they are used by insurance companies, provide best practices for coverage counsel to avoid bad faith pitfalls, and explore how EUOs might be used in litigation down the road.

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY

2:30-3:30 PM

Safeguard Your Law Firm: Examining Current Legal Malpractice Trends, 1.0 Hour Ethics

This presentation examines current legal malpractice trends and what recent claims data reveals about the risks confronting today's lawyers and law firms. The program explores persistent sources of malpractice claims, including substantive errors, calendaring failures, conflicts of interest, documentation deficiencies, and mistakes involving routine legal tasks.

Attendees will learn practical strategies for reducing professional liability exposure through stronger internal processes, thoughtful decision-making, effective conflict resolution, and competent file documentation.

The presentation also addresses emerging risk-management concerns involving insurance defense practitioners and aging attorneys, while providing practical guidance for building safer, more resilient law practices.

Andrew S. Gerrish, Frith Anderson + Peake

3:30-4:30 PM

Devil in the Details: Engagement Letters & Fee Dispute Resolution,
1.0 HR Ethics

This presentation examines two distinct ethics issues often faced by practicing attorneys:

A. Documenting the Attorney-Client Engagement

The first half of the presentation will examine the ethical and risk-management importance of clearly documenting the attorney-client relationship. This part of the program will address identifying the client, defining and limiting the scope of representation, establishing fees and costs, addressing conflicts and client responsibilities, and using effective engagement letters to prevent misunderstandings, ethical complaints, and malpractice claims.

B. Ethical Billing, Collections, and Fee Disputes

The second half of the presentation will explore ethical and risk-management considerations arising from attorney billing and collection practices. This part of the program will address written fee agreements, regular and detailed billing, retainers, delinquent accounts, client communications, withdrawal, and alternatives to fee litigation. There will be a special emphasis on avoiding fee disputes that may generate ethics complaints or malpractice counterclaims.
